Read three letters from the hand held chart, say them aloud in your mind, and then shift to read and say aloud in your mind the next 3 letters from the wall chart. Keep varying the routine to keep it interesting.

Move further away when the letters become clear.

Adapted after W. Heart, 1961.